10 CENTS

SO THE PEOPLE MAY KNOW

(An Editorial)

A booklet from Communist headquarters in New York came to our desk this week. It was written by Gus Hall, chairman of Communist Party USA.

Gus Hall abhors the free institutions of this country. "I dream of the hour when the last Congressman is strangled to death on the guts of the last preacher — and since the Christians seem to love to sing about the blood, why not give them a little of it. Slit the throats of their children and drag them over the mourner's bench and the pulpit, and allow them to drown in their own blood; and then see whether they enjoy singing these hymns," Hall declared in a speech in 1961 as quoted in the Borger News-Herald of October 18, 1964.

Regardless of political affiliation, we think every American should know goals and working plans of Hall's Communists as laid down in his most recent booklet. For this reason we present the contents of Chairman Hall's booklet verbatim:

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Gus Hall is well known as the leading spokesman for the Communist Party, U.S.A. He has presented the Communist viewpoint to millions on radio and television, as well as in press conferences and public meetings.

At a recent conference in New York City of more than a hundred Communist leaders from all parts of the country, Gus Hall made a report on the crucial 1964 elections. The meeting came immediately after Senator Barry Goldwater and the ultra-Right captured the Presidential nomination and control of the Republican Party. This pamphlet makes Hall's report to that meeting available to the public.

Born in Minnesota 53 years ago, Gus Hall became active in the labor movement at an early age as a union organizer, and leader of the unemployed in his home state during the depression '30s. Then he became an organizer of the steel workers in Ohio. He was a leader in the Little Steel Strike of 1937 and a founder of the United Steel Workers of America under Phillip Murray. He served his country in the Navy during World War II.

He served an eight-year prison sentence under a Smith Act frameup and a vindictive contempt charge. He has consistently sought to express his views and at the present time is fighting malicious and unconstitutional McCarran Act indictment.

He is the author of numerous pamphlets and articles including "The United States in Today's World," "Our Sights to the Future," "End the Cold War," "Peaceful Coexistence—the Only Choice," "Which Way USA, 1964?" and "Negro Freedom Is in the Interest of Every American."

THE ELEVENTH HOUR —

DEFEAT THE NEW FASCIST THREAT!

BY GUS HALL

It is now an inescapable reality: the United States is face to face with a most serious reactionary challenge, a grave confrontation with a force that imperils the very existence of our democratic institutions.

The nation is face to face with an ugly force that threatens to wipe out all the gains of our people and to wipe out the world by nuclear devastation.

The warning flags against the danger of fascism must be hoisted anew.

The overall task before all progressives, the entire left, including the Communists, is to set a course for the crucial three months ahead.

In the calculations of the theories and the science of space, the element of time has emerged as one of the central factors.

In a political struggle, as in space, time is a basic material element. If Communists and other Progressives are to be effective in influencing our political surroundings, we must raise the element of time to a higher status in our calculations.

In this sense the next three months are not just a 90-day period of time. They are a 90-day time-period packed with the political potency of many years duration of other times. It is a time period of special quality; it is a political crossroad.

It is very important for us to understand the qualitative essence of this short period of time.

It is not going to be a period for the incubation of ideas. It is not the planting season for political trends.

The very essence of this period is political confrontation, political decision, political mobilization, mass organization, bold initiative, creative and imaginative mass propaganda. It is a moment when mass trends and political currents come to the surface, and can explode into mass political movements and struggles. The period of incubation is over; the moment of mass political action is at hand. This is the moment that separates the empty talkers from those who give leadership; the seat-warmers from the initiators, organizers and mobilizers.

The key word in the above sentence is "they can explode into mass movements and struggles." They can—if they get leadership. We must be clear as to the potential of the movement—if there is leadership. On the other hand, if these mass trends that are surfacing do not get leadership, if they cannot find the path to crystallization, they can wither and flounder in frustration and into passivity. Or worse, they can become victims to extreme reactionary demagoguery.

So, 1964 is a political crossroads election. Our nation can take a path that will lead it to a swing in either direction. We have present, simultaneously, a very grave challenge from the forces of reaction, as well as the potential for the emergence of a broad people's democratic upsurge that can bring about a smashing defeat of the forces of the ultra-Right. Through these elections our country can take the step that can lead

Business Deciding Factor In Action

County Judge Wayland Angel Wednesday announced that he will submit his resignation to commissioners court Monday.

The judge gave business as his reason for stepping down as the county's magistrate.

Angel operates two farms and two apartment houses.

He was elected county judge in 1960 to succeed Roy Joe Stevens, who resigned.

He served out Stevens' unexpired term and then was re-elected in 1962.

Angel was elected to serve until 1966 had he not cut his term short by resigning.

Following is the text of a letter which Angel made public Wednesday noon and which he said he will submit to commissioners court Monday:

"To the Commissioner's Court, Randall County, Texas:

"After much consideration, I have made the decision to submit my resignation as county judge of Randall County, Texas effective on Monday the 26th day of October, 1964.

"It has reached the point where it is not possible for me to give the necessary attention to the office of county judge which this office requires and at the same time look after my private property interests and have the time that I would like with my family.

"I appreciate very much the relationship that I have had with you gentlemen in the matters concerning the commissioner's court and it is my wish that my friendship with each of you gentlemen shall continue in the future.

"Sincerely,"

The letter had not yet been signed when it was tendered to newsmen in the judge's office in Randall County courthouse.

Judge Angel said he will remain officially as judge until next Monday.

It Comes Back To Me Now!

A Canyon housewife received a telephone call from Life Magazine early this week.

"Why did you cancel your subscription?" the voice on the telephone asked.

"Because you endorsed Lyndon Johnson," the housewife replied.

"What have you got against him?" asked the voice.

"Haven't you read 'A Texan Looks at Lyndon'?" the housewife parried.

"Oh! You're from CANYON, TEXAS?" the voice replied.

Death Claims Mrs. Brasuel

Mrs. Hattie Edna Brasuel, 77, a Canyon resident for 36 years, died in La Casa Canyon Convalescent Home Sunday.

Mrs. Brasuel, who worked many years as a dietitian in Randall Hall on the West Texas State University campus, was active in the First Methodist Church of Canyon during her lifetime.

The mother of seven children, Mrs. Brasuel served in the Women's Society of Christian Service, the Wesley Sunday School Class, the Condon Sunday School and was Grand Noble of the Rebekah Lodge.

She was also an active member of the Mother-In-Laws Club and worked in the Moss Richardson Circle.

In September of this year,

HATTIE BRASUEL

Mrs. Brasuel was presented a life membership pin to the WSCS of the First Methodist Church.

She was born in Grand Prairie, Marcy 30, 1887. She married Leonard Brasuel in Comanche County and the couple lived in Claude before moving to Canyon in 1926.

She became dietitian of Randall Hall during her early years in Canyon, and became an important part of the dormitory life on the WT campus.

"She was a delightful person. I remember any time one of the girls had a problem she would take it to Mrs. Brasuel. She was an inspiration to all of us," one former college coed said this week.

Mrs. Brasuel lived at 2011 Seventh Avenue before her death Sunday.

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Tuesday in La Grone Funeral Chapel.

Rev. Newton Starnes officiated for the final rites.

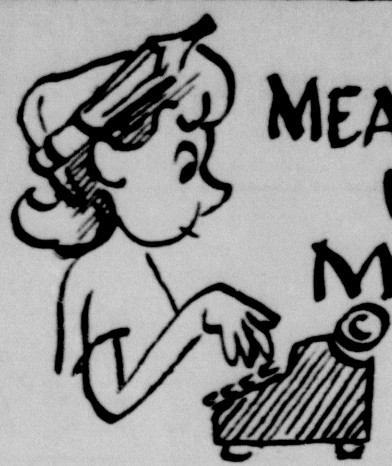

Burial followed in Dreamland Cemetery.

Pall bearers included Hosea Foster, Virgil Henson, K. E. Frieze, Bob Parsons, Jack Barnard and Buddy Taylor.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Tom Carnes of Calexico, California, Mrs. Virgil McGee of Childress, and Mrs. James Watts of Maderia Beach, Florida; four sons, Leonard E. of Cuba, New Mexico,

MEANDERING WITH MARGO

Mrs. Clarence Dierking, wife of a WT Buff coach, found that stepping out in a new style can pull some strange glances.

Debbie searched weeks for a pair of the latest "opera stocking" hose. She finally found some Monday, and came to work Tuesday in the striking new black hose.

She ran an errand across the street mid-morning Tuesday and came back into the office with a puzzled laugh. "Some little boy saw me walking down the street and shouted, 'Oh, no' and died laughing," Debbie Dierking commented.

Then she stopped, looked down at her thoroughly-covered legs, and laughed.

"Guess the stockings were just too much for him," she surmised.

For years women fought to have the length of the hemlines shortened. Once the hems were hiked to the knee, women began to find that the sheer stocking, which also was sought after for years, was not stylish enough.

Now what have we? Well, we have short-short skirts, and long, thick, colored stockings, which hide those legs that the shortened hemline was to expose.

A constant struggle between common sense and women's styles causes women to be inconsistent—right ladies?

But I won't deny that I like the new hose. In fact, think I may try to wear them all the time. My case seems to be different. Most females have nice knees, which the short skirts emphasize. But "yours truly" could wear basketball guardpads around the knees and not lose any beauty at the hemline.

Who was it that said, except for your knees, your legs are fine...just tell me, where do your knees stop?

Just 64 days until Christmas, and no doubt most all the shopping has been completed.

Packages are wrapped, stored away in the backs of closets, under beds, in the garage, or in the attic.

Or are you one of the smart ones who has decided to be different this year and just wait until the last week and buy all the gifts then?

That way you won't have to go through all that wrapping, hiding, checking to make sure the kids haven't found any of it, and finally deciding it isn't really what you wanted to get Uncle George and retracing your steps to the store and exchanging it.

At least when you buy late you don't have time to think about how practical it is, or how much it costs. You're too busy doing the rest of your shopping.

Local Phone Directories Sent Tuesday

Canyon residents will receive the 1964 telephone directories this week, according to Southwestern Bell Telephone Company officials.

Charles Sutton, company manager, said the Canyon directories were mailed Tuesday of this week and will include 72 pages.

The cover will be of white stock, overprinted in brown ink. Twenty-four pages will be used for alphabetical phone listings and 48 pages will be in classified or Yellow Pages.

Sutton said approximately 6,525 copies of the new directory have been printed but not all copies will be mailed to customers at this time. The additional copies will be used during the coming year.

West Texas State was the first and only teachers college in Texas to introduce courses in archaeology, paleontology, and geology in 1934.

FROM THE CANYON RIM

by Troy Martin

Walter Jenkins, a top aide to the President, was arrested early this month for the second time on morals charges.

The Jenkins case points straight to a breach in national security.

In the past we have lost many of our defense secrets through blackmail of sex deviates by the enemy. As a top assistant to the President, Jenkins had access to most secret information.

The moral aspect of the Jenkins and Bobby Baker cases are enough to make a man retch in disgust.

What mortal danger does this country already face as the price of having had such an unstable person as Walter Jenkins in such a sensitive position as he has held?

Only the President can answer this question.

We do not think the meaning of the revolution—that's exactly what it was—in the Soviet Union has yet been clearly assessed.

One thing is certain, Khrushchev did not willingly resign. The dual dictatorship has the appearance of the first stage of a power struggle.

One of the new leaders almost is certain to pay with his life for a brief moment of glory. One of them may emerge as strongman or both may be deposed by an even stronger man.

This is the third such power struggle since the revolution. Stalin ousted Leon Trotsky, Lenin's heir, and Khrushchev put down a half dozen pretenders in his bid for supreme power.

What has just happened in Russia should make us in this country proud of the way we choose our leaders—at the ballot box.

Here in Canyon, some are supporting Goldwater and some Johnson. Each person a right to support and vote for the candidate of his choice without fear of reprisal, economic or social.

We should do battle for our chosen candidate with earnestness but never with bitterness.

After the election becomes history, we must again work together for the advancement of our community.

We wrote to all four major candidates asking to be supplied with the income tax returns of each for a span of the past eight years.

The candidates themselves have made personal wealth and the manner of its acquisition a campaign issue. Then they published financial statements.

A financial statement can be manipulated with ease to make a person appear rich or not so rich.

A tax return would give a better picture.

So far we've heard only from Senator Humphrey. Naturally we didn't get the tax returns. In a single sentence, Ted Van Dyk, the senator's press agent, declined our request.

Speaking of Senator Humphrey, here's what Gov. John Connally had to say about the senator's Americans for Democratic Action two years ago.

"The left-wing, radical ADA and their cohorts stand for everything Texas doesn't," Connally told Texas voters in a statewide telecast May 23, 1962.

Hubert Humphrey was one of the founders of ADA and served as its chairman in 1949 and 1950.

Humphrey stands a good chance of becoming President of the United States if he is elected vice-president Nov. 3. Lyndon Johnson had a severe heart attack in 1955.

As vice-president, Hubert Humphrey would indeed be only a heart beat away from the Presidency.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Well you have done what I told lots of people you would do, give Senator Yarborough hell in your column. Because you hate him worse than the devil hates holy water you have called him unprintable names to me.

Ralph Yarborough would be dam good to talk to you or any of the Amarillo reporters. Instead of being helped it would hurt him. He has authored and coauthored 35 bills that have become law. He has at least stayed in Washington and tried to earn his salary and knows what's going on. Goldwaters says he talked to more people than any man in America and has made 3000 speeches in 10 years.

Take out Sundays and holidays and that's about one a day, and the taxpayers pay for that. Well will you cite his achievements in the Senate. The Saturday Evening Post says he has none and that he changes his mind as often as his shirt. I agree with that. This past week he called the Democrat Party Fascist in Wisconsin. Yesterday, Oct. 17th he called it socialist in Ohio. I think the head shrinkers as Holmes Alexander calls them maybe right when two months ago they were against him. Why was such nationally known men as Jay Taylor say they are not afraid of Humphrey? Why has Republican conservative Gen. Robert Wood of Sears & Roebuck said he can sleep better knowing Humphrey is vice-president? Why has Clare Booth Luce Life Magazine come out for Johnson? Lots of big Republicans say they are not leaving the party, they are just leaving Goldwater. The highest Goldwater ever rated with the voters was 42 to 58 with Kennedy. When Kennedy was trying to get civil rights over. After Kennedy was killed he dropped to 14 percent and so far came back to 32 percent as of Oct. 18th. That shows the public does not want him and only two presidents in office have ever been beat in my lifetime, Taft and Hoover. Teddy Roosevelt split the GOP in 1912 and caused Wilson to be elected. The depression caused Hoover to lose office. It is a newsman's duty to offer both sides to the voters and not one side. It is a newsman's privilege to vote for who he pleases but he should not tear down a man to the voters just because he don't like him. How about Goldwater and the mobsters Bloff, Greenbaum? How about Bill Miller and the Lockport Felt Co. the Niagara Mohawk Power Co. the Wurliitzer Co. I mention this for the simple reason that Haley's book is a political Bible to you Goldwater fans.

Yours Truly

James Hancock

PS: Yarborough voted against foreign aid, beef imports and for a tax cut which Goldwater was against the tax cut.

Cartoonist Lampoons UN In Talk At WTSU

An internationally known cartoonist lampooned the United Nations here Friday in a humorous comic strip entitled "Hop Along Sam."

The cartoonist is Reg Manning of Scottsdale, Ariz., Pulitzer prize winner and famed cartoonist. He spoke at a Phoenix Club dinner at West Texas State University.

Hop Along Sam, of course, represented the United States. He was portrayed as a western cowboy who intermittently acted as deputy sheriff punctuating his forays at badge toting by dropping his gun into the well.

The other nations of the world were portrayed as good guys and rustlers. The worst rustler of all was "Big Red", Russia.

The United Ranchers Association, the United Nations, was an organization designed to stop rustling (wars). However, Big Red, who helped draw up the rules and regulations for the association, was a director of the organization in the daytime, but a rustler by night, instigating most of the rustling that was going on.

Manning's story goes that Mousie Tongue of the China Ranch rustled some cattle from the South Korea Ranch and the United Ranchers Association (in the absence of Big Red) appointed Hop Along Sam deputy to get things straightened out.

Big Red hurried back to the association and got Deputy Sam hamstrung with so many regulations he couldn't corral the crooks once and for all, among other things, Sam couldn't chase the thieves back to their hide-out. Big Red also saw to it that Sam had to pay his own expenses while chasing the rustlers.

Then the directors of the association made Sam divide up the Korean barn (North and South Korea). "That was so the rustlers would have a barn to keep their stolen cattle in," Manning declared.

This was an obvious reference to the armistice arrangement which still is in progress at Panmunjom, Korea after more than 10 years.

Then Manning referred to the test ban treaty.

Big Red and Sam agreed to drop their guns into the well simultaneously.

The last picture of Manning's strip showed Sam and Big Red at the well with their artillery dangling over the brink. A tear away showed Sam's gun going on into the well while Big Red's gun was shown falling into a bucket near the top and in easy reach of the rustler.

Frank Barrett, Hereford, was master of ceremonies. The speaker was introduced by Wayne Thomas, Hereford attorney. Dr. James P. Cornette, WTSU president, gave the welcoming address and Dr. J. A. Hill, WTSU president emeritus, pronounced the invocation.

County Agents To Texas A&M

County agents, Mrs. Sally Pulley and John Brazzil will be in College Station Oct. 26-30 for the biennial agents conference.

The conference, reports Brazzil, will be held on the campus of Texas A & M University, state headquarters for Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Scheduled theme for the conference is "New Horizons in Adult Education".

First District Contest Friday For Canyon

Test-time is here and Canyon High School's Eagles hope to have the answers when they meet Hereford Friday at 8 p.m. in Buffalo Bowl.

Canyon will be stepping full-force into first year 1-AAA action, moving from last season's 2-AA rating.

Hereford's Whitefaces, sporting a 3-2 record this season, have defeated Dimmitt 34-7, Littlefield 21-6 and Lovington, New Mexico 24-16.

Hereford losses came from Plainview 20-0 and Levelland 18-15.

Coach Jack Meredith's Whitefaces listed 12 returning lettermen this season and 5 regulars.

Early season strong points included more depth, speed and improved passing, while weak points were inexperience and lack of size in key positions.

Hereford, toting a 4-6 record from last season, ranked third in early coaches' polls for the district.

According to Canyon coach Jeep Webb, Hereford uses a pro set offensive attack with split ends, slots a back and sets up the remainder of the backfield in a "T" formation.

"Some of their outstanding boys are Frank Cain, the quarterback; George Muse, a tackle who is doing a good job for them; and Walker Williams, tailback, who has been injured but should be playing," said Webb.

"They have a pretty fair attack passing and on the ground," stated Webb.

Following a Friday-night breather the Eagles are back in good condition and ready for action. Webb reported all injuries cleared up, with Alex deSchweinitz limping but back in drills after being out with a cracked bone in his foot.

The Eagles face a stern season in triple A district, with games scheduled against Dumas, Perryton, Tulia and Hereford.

it to reaction and towards fascism, and on the other hand it can defeat the ultra-Right challenge in such a way, and create such mass movements, actions, and new political alignments that the nation will take a path to greater democracy, peace and economic security.

Such is the qualitative essence of the next 90-day period of time.

Danger Of Reaction

The 1964 elections are so crucial and critical because they now reflect a new level of political polarization.

The issues are sharply drawn. The forces are fast lining up. In such a sharp confrontation on issues so broad that they affect every American, issues that will decide the direction and the political nature of our Nation, issues of peace or war, democracy or fascism, civil rights or Jim Crow—in such a confrontation there can be no neutrals.

Inaction in the name of neutrality, or abstention or boycott in the name of protest will aid the very opposite of the intended protest. Any progressive force demobilized in 1964 under whatever pretext means inadvertent support for the most reactionary candidates. It is a political line that backfires, unless one is ready to accept the infantile and dangerous outlook of "the worse, the better."

So all forces in one way or another are going to have their say about the outcome of this confrontation. There is no escaping the confrontation. All groups and all forces will have to react to it.

What is the nature of this reactionary challenge?

It is the coalescing of three poisonous and polluted reactionary streams. It is the polarization of these reactionary formations into an evil reactionary alliance that now threatens to ride to power through the 1964 elections. In this confrontation, the ultra-Right danger emerges as a far graver threat than ever before.

The Dixiecrats, the K.K.K. and the White Citizens Councils are an old racist base of reaction. Since the Civil War these forces have polluted the thinking and the bloodstream of our country. They have become even more desperate and violent. Cowardly murder has become the main weapon of this scum in their fanatical crazed attempt to halt the march to Freedom Now for Negro Americans and return the South to slavery. They are now making forays into the North to make contact with their ideological kinfolk, the Birchites, other crusaders of reaction and backward bigotry.

Guard Against Provocateurs

Their weapons are terror, murder and provocation. The aim of the provocation is to heighten racial tensions, to create confusion and violence. The aim of the provocation is to create splits and divisions between Negro and white Americans and in the civil rights movement. The air of the confusion, divisions, and the tensions is for them to become the vehicles by which to ride to political power. The people of the United States must now raise their guard against provocations. If the provocateur is in a police uniform, that only increases the danger.

Mississippi has become a front line in the struggle against the rising danger of fascism in America. The struggle in that state is a crucial battle to save U.S. democracy.

As goes Mississippi, so goes the Civil Rights law, and so goes U.S. democracy.

If the Federal laws and the U.S. Constitution cannot be enforced in that state, then the state bigots are deciding whether to enforce them or not. If Americans who help bring democracy and the right to vote to the citizens of that state, can be jailed, brutally beaten, and murdered without getting any protection from Federal authorities who are supposed to enforce these laws, then this becomes the lawless hoodlum precedent for all states.

When nobody is arrested and brought to justice for the murder of four children in an Alabama church, and when police and racist hoodlums can bomb or shoot into homes and churches, then democracy as well as human lives is the victim of the poisonous stream of racism.

This is one of the ugly streams of reaction now joining with other forces.

To understand the nature of the other two streams, it is necessary to go back ten or fifteen years.

New World Realities

In the 50's the balance of world forces began qualitatively to tip against the forces of world capitalism. The balance of world forces tipped and this in turn unbalanced many of the spokesmen for capitalism. But this ushered in a new period, a new kind of relationship between nations. U.S. imperialism did not take kindly to this new turn of events. It fanned the flames of the cold and hot wars. But it was to no avail. John Foster Dulles' "massive retaliation" became a massive fiasco.

A new balance of world forces compelled a "painful reexamination of U.S. self-interests." And so the supreme and cardinal question of U.S. political life for this epoch emerged and took its place with the great issues of history. This issue is: "How should the United States react to this new world reality?"

Should the United States ignore the world system of socialist nations of one billion people? Should it ignore the reality of the destructiveness of nuclear weapons? Should U.S. policy ignore the fact that the whole system of imperialism is fast coming to an end? Should it continue to ignore the fact that the majority peoples of the world have renounced racism? Should the U.S. continue to ignore the demand of all nations and peoples to be treated as equals? And should our policy ignore the reality that the European capitalist countries refuse to behave as U.S. satellites?

The question has been: Should the U.S. policy proceed from a position of strength when that position is more a myth than a reality?

Slowly and painfully the idea has gained ground that U.S. policy should be based on the realities of the world and not on the myths of the past.

Hesitatingly and reluctantly, U.S. policy has moved towards an acceptance of, and an adjustment to, the world as it is. It has shown some signs that it wants to co-exist with reality. Some of the adjustments have been only tactical; some have only been words. In many areas there are no adjustments. In South Vietnam, in the attitude towards the Republic of Cuba towards Latin America, the naked policy of imperialist aggression is in full force.

The adjustment of policy to fit the changed status of U.S. imperialism from that of an unchallenged pirate to being only one of many centers of power has been a painful process indeed. The forces of reaction have refused to accept this reality. They have taken the setbacks and frustrations of U.S. imperialism and turned them into ideological instruments, to build reactionary centers of nationalism, jingoism and anti-communism, into centers of hysteria, of war propaganda, centers of racism and for the propagation of fascism. They have deliberately and demagogically made the world's resistance to U.S. big business, imperialist policies of aggression appear as if they were rebuffs and setbacks for the people of the United States.

Goldwater Atomaniacs

This demagogic appeal to jingoism was sounded by Senator Dirksen in his nominating speech for Goldwater. He spoke of Cuba, Ghana and Panama with imperialist, chauvinistic arrogance. With his phrase, "too long have we heard the bugle of retreat," Dirksen sounded more like the bugler of the Light Brigade. If the people follow this bugler of death, the poem will have to recast to read—"Into the valley of nuclear death rode civilization."

The Goldwater jingoes seek to implant in the minds of the unknowing the idea that by boldly using our nuclear stockpiles, the U.S. could again rule the world, that a world not ruled by the U.S. is not worth saving. Their slogan is, "Coexistence means death."

In the most irresponsible manner they label all who do not go along with these crackpot ideas as "traitors to our country." They seek to make the setbacks and frustrations of U.S. imperialism appear as setbacks for the nation and the people.

It is this campaign, based on the myths of the past, that is the ideological and political demagoguery used to build the other two polluted streams, now joined in the new fascist threat.

One stream includes the fanatical fascist groups, such as the Birchites, the anti-Communist forces brass. These well-dressed, cold-eyed, brass-knuckle men with dark glasses were all over the Republican Party convention.

The third of these streams is the resurgence of virulent McCarthyism within the political parties. This is especially so within the councils of the Republican Party. One would make a fundamental error to see these people as the old Taft Conservatives. This is McCarthyism with muscle—this is McCarthyism with a conscious fascist ideology. The elements from all three streams have now captured the Republican Party. The convention delegates only reflected the control of the party machine. It is a case of the most successful infiltration in history.

For some six years, these ultra-Right forces have combed the swamps, gathered all the dregs and placed them into controlling positions with the Republican machine. Of course, the infiltration was made easy because there was no resistance. And there was no resistance because, as the NEW YORK TIMES said, "It is not difficult to understand a sentimental attachment to Goldwater" in the Republican Party. The TIMES is talking about "political sentiment" of course.

The takeover is complete. The ultra-Right demanded and got terms of unconditional surrender. The takeover was the result of a well-executed campaign.

Polarization Of Reaction

The Republican Party is now transformed. It is now an instrument of extreme reaction. It can become the instrument of fascism. We regret that our analysis of two years ago has turned into a prophecy.

The G.O.P. has dropped even its fig leaf of appealing to labor and the negro voter. Of the 1300 delegates at the G.O.P. convention only 14 were Negro Republicans. The racists have driven the Negro Americans out of the councils of the Republican Party in the South and are trying to impose the same pattern in the rest of the country. There was not one Negro in the California State Delegation of 86 delegates.

These forces and the Birchites are now the ultra-Right hub around which the reactionary control is built. We can expect the local Republican Party headquarters more and more to become the centers of extreme reaction in all of the communities. The danger of this challenge is further heightened because of the ability of this evil coalition to get less conservative Republicans to run interference for it. At the very height of the McCarthy onslaught against the democratic institutions, and right at a time when the counter-attack against Senator McCarthy was beginning to gather strength, General Eisenhower went on a statewide public tour with him in Wisconsin. As Hindenburg served Hitler, Ike is again picked in the attempt to give Goldwater a veneer of moderation. Ike in fact is helping to lead the voters to the ultra-Right slaughter.

Most likely there will be some Republicans who will not go along. They will work to save the Republican Party by defeating Goldwater and the other ultra-Right candidates. This is apparently the course of Jackie Robinson and other Republicans who place their nation and people above a loyalty to a party captured by reaction.

This, then, completes the three streams that make up the mainstream of malignant reaction. It is the merging of these streams that creates the new danger from the venomous ultra-Right.

All of these forces are going to work for Goldwater's election. We were not misled by Wallace's talk of running for President. Wallace is after Democratic votes for Goldwater especially in the South. (Since writing this, Wallace has announced his withdrawal, obviously a carefully-planned, carefully-timed maneuver executed in cooperation with the Goldwater camp.)

The confrontation is with the ugliest political force in our history. That ugly cabal is further supported by powerful forces within the Pentagon, the C.I.A. and the F.B.I. It is now receiving hundreds of millions of dollars from important segments of big business. They now have the respectability of a presidential candidate of one of the two parties and the machinery of a national party in their hands.

They have a core of trained fanatics, who campaign night and day. The California primaries again proves that a general campaign of speeches and handshakes, even when conducted on T.V. is no match for a well-organized house-to-house campaign.

An Evil Coalition

The American people must be convinced about the special nature of this evil coalition. It is not just the coming together for the purpose of the elections. It is not just another Taft or an Ike. It is not even just a revival of McCarthyism.

Here, there is the merging of ideological currents, of reactionary centers with some mass base. The hopes of electoral victory is based on racism, jingoism and anti-communism.

The racism of white supremacy is now mixed with the anti-democratic currents of fascism. The "nuclear war mania" is mixed with jingoism, the anti-labor neurosis is now mixed with anti-Semitism, with anti-Mexican-American, anti-Puerto Rican and anti-Italian, and general anti-foreign born bigotry. All this is superimposed on a Hitler-like big lie campaign of anti-Communism.

It is not just polarization of groups for elections—it is a polarization of reactionary ideological currents. The aim is political domination—state power. It is not only a combined quality; it is a new fascist-like quality that has emerged from the coalescence of three different ideological reactionary currents.

Further, on what is at stake: The confrontation is with suicidal political insanity.

Goldwater's "Total Victory" Goal

What other interpretation is it possible to give Goldwater's often stated policy of "total victory"? This Dr. Strange-love-like madness is now a plank in the Republican Party platform. It states, "There can be no peace, there can be no security until this goal is won." And further it states, "We will take the cold-war offensive on all fronts." What they are saying is—if elected we will declare war for total victory.

A policy of so-called "total victory" is a policy of total nuclear war. It will not result in total victory, or victory of any kind—it will only result in total annihilation. What other possible interpretation can one give to Goldwater's policy of "total victory" and then giving the Pentagon and the field commander the right to use nuclear weapons when they so desire? The Nazi generals in command posts in NATO are specifically included in this lunacy. This is now a feature of the Republican Party platform. It is an extension of the dangerous Administration policy of building a NATO surface fleet with nuclear weapons.

What other interpretation can one give to Goldwater's outlook of "either we destroy the socialist countries or they will destroy us"? Maybe there is more to the story, as reported by Drew Pearson, that Mrs. Goldwater admitted the truth about Goldwater's mental breakdowns. In a Dr. Strangelove fashion he keeps repeating, "This is a struggle between the godless people and the people of God." This is what the late Defense Secretary James Forrestal kept repeating as he jumped to his death.

Policies based on myths lead to insane-sounding concepts. But when such concepts become the guiding policies of a nation, it is a crisis for all of humanity. For such a policy the U.N. would be an obstacle. Since it is almost impossible to now turn the U.N. into an instrument of imperialist war, the Republican Party now proposes to destroy it.

This explains Goldwater's intimate relations with the revenge-seeking Nazi dregs of west Germany—his obvious fascination with the fanatical past and present of Hitlerism. As an American why else should he be so enraptured with the study of why the fascists of Germany lost, as well as how Hitler came to power?

Goldwater's statements of wanting less Federal government is also a fraud. He does not want to turn over the powers of government to the people; he wants to reduce the Federal government by turning its functions over to the military brass. He wants to cut the Federal budget by cutting down the expenditures for social security—by starving the civilian departments and turning the money over to the military brass.

Incites World Tensions

The Republican Party convention delegates are not happy because the fallout of deadly strontium-90 has decreased. They promise to correct this by repealing the nuclear test ban treaty so that the shower of deadly nuclear fallout can continue without letup. (I wonder if the supporters of Mao are going to applaud this "progressive" proposal by the ultra-Right? They both agree it is a fraud.) In their warped minds, the Republican Convention delegates saw safety in the development of overkill on top of overkill.

There is no fuzziness about the Goldwater-Republican Party position on foreign policy. It seeks to do everything possible to provoke and to increase world tensions. His policy would put into practice a plan for a world-wide network of nuclear bombs to be used for nuclear extortion. It is a policy of nuclear war—a policy of nuclear suicide.

The Republican Party's platform was shaped so it now conforms with Goldwater's votes against the Civil Rights Law, with his votes against the minimum effort bill against poverty, and against Federal aid to education. That platform expresses his opposition to the whole system of social security, unemployment insurance, old-age benefits, against hot lunches to school children of depressed areas, against the food stamp plan.

The convention reflects Goldwater's disdain and opposition to the trade union movement. It mirrored his support of union-busting, wage-cutting, scab-herding "right-to-work" laws.

There is a fascist-like cynicism in the Goldwater-Republican Party plan to turn over the decision to use nuclear weapons over to the field commander.

The New Fascist Danger

It is necessary for every American to take a good look at the full implications of this new threat.

Whether all of the participants fully know it or not—this type of coalition has its own logic of development. This one can develop only in a reactionary direction. The logic of its direction, the weight of its propelling inner forces, can only lead towards fascism.

Its appeal is to the sections and to the ideological level of people who can be engulfed in the demagoguery of fascism. It gets its financial support from those sections of big business who have always supported fascist-oriented movements.

As is the case with fascism, this evil coalition appeals to the most backward sentiments, to racism, jingoism and national hatreds.

As we said earlier, is is a confrontation with the ugliest, the most violent, the most virulent and malignant organized force in our history.

Can The Ultra-Right Win

Before we answer the very unpleasant question: can this evil coalition win, we must assess what it has already won.

The nomination of Goldwater in the California primaries was a major victory for the ultra-Right. Los Angeles county was the first real beachhead in the operation of this reactionary force. The votes for Wallace in Wisconsin, Indiana and Maryland were victories for this evil force.

The capture of the national machinery of the Republican Party is a further victory for the ultra-Right.

The capture of the Republican Party convention and the presidential nomination is another victory for these forces. But some may say, "The progressives are not in the Republican Party. How can you designate these developments within a conservative bourgeois party as victories for the forces of progress?"

It is true the forces of progress are not within the Republican Party, but the issues in this confrontation are not those that divide the Left and the progressives from the rest of the political spectrum.

When the issues are as broad as war or peace, democracy or fascism, civil rights or slavery and Jim Crow, and when the ultra-Right wins on these kinds of issues in a statewide primary or at the national convention of a major party—then they must be viewed as serious setbacks. These defeats for the forces of moderation within the Republican Party must serve as a warning to the forces of progress and peace everywhere.

As unpleasant and as impossible as the though may seem, we must entertain the question: Is it possible for this evil coalition to win the Presidential election? By now we all possess enough political sagacity and sagacity never to say "It can't happen here." We must say in all candor—it does not have to happen, but it most definitely can. At this moment the most dangerous mood is smug complacency. It is this false complacency that is the obstacle to a people's movement. This is always the forerunner to defeat.

It Need Not Happen Here

Even a close defeat for Goldwater would not be a serious setback to the forces of reaction. There are forces in this coalition who consider it a victory to have Goldwater run and go down to defeat; they prefer defeat rather than have some other candidate who would increase the Republican chances of winning. To be able to put on a nationwide three-month drive for their reactionary ideas is a victory for them.

A narrow Goldwater defeat would leave this alliance intact. They would remain a powerful force—pushing the whole political spectrum to the right. They would continue to have the machinery of the Republican Party at their disposal.

Therefore the aim of the people's democratic forces can be nothing short of a smashing defeat for this ultra-Right reaction.

But Goldwater's defeat is not automatic. When there is no crystallized broad opposition, when the country is in the midst of adjusting to new world relations and to very deep-going domestic changes, extreme demagoguery can be a very powerful influence.

To take for granted the ultra-Right defeat would be the greatest political folly—it would be an unforgivable political crime.

So the decisive question of the moment becomes: "Is there a smashing defeat for the reactionary forces in the 1964 political cards?"

Anyone who has studied the American scene can come to only one conclusion: It's not only possible to meet the challenge, but also to deliver such a crushing blow as to send this ugly alliance into generations of paralysis.

To achieve this historic victory the key factor is the quick emergence to a broad people's movement, a people's upsurge that understands the dangerous nature of the challenge, a movement that can resist and expose the reactionary demagoguery, a people's movement that will move from the defensive to the offensive against the foe, a people's movement that will set the standards for politicians and programs, a movement that will itself create the political climate for the campaign.

Appeasement or retreat before this challenge would be a pathway to disaster. Any ideas of pacification of these reactionary ultra-Right forces by feeding them with concessions at the expense of the people's interests, must be rebuffed.

The Civil Rights law must be energetically implemented. The war on poverty must get off the ground. The steps to ease world tensions, toward world peace must be vigorously sought for.

Only a fighting people's movement can block all attempts to appease or to sell out the interests of the people.

Is it realistic to expect such a movement to emerge? I think it is very realistic.

The People Can Win!

What are the factors that make a people's democratic victory possible?

First, while there has been a coalescing of the forces of reaction, and while these forces have moved to the Right, there has been no such trend amongst the broad masses. In fact the mass trends are moving in the opposite direction.

The emergence of such a people's democratic movement will be a further development of these mass currents. The democratic movement can swim with these currents, while the ultra-Right fascist coalition will have to swim against the mass currents.

Second, there is a serious split in the ranks of the capitalist class on these issues. Some of the large newspapers and serious columnists reflect this deep concern. Their concern is about the self-interest of U. S. capitalism. However, there concern about the self-interests of U. S. capitalism and the concern of the people for their own self-interests coincide at certain major points.

There are people in the business world who for their own reasons do not think a nuclear war policy is to their best self-interests. This idea coincides with what millions believe. The parallel self-interests of the masses and of sections of the capitalist class adds greatly to the strength of a broad people's movement. This will help to give middle class elements confidence in a democratic victory.

The dominant sections of U.S. capitalism are not withholding support to the current ultra-Right coalition because they are conscious anti-fascists.

U. S. capitalism still feels it has enough reserves to be able to maneuver through concessions and reforms. The election of Goldwater or the victory of fascism would greatly damage U. S. capitalism's ability to do profitable business around the world. The businessmen of South Africa pay for "apartheid" through loss of business. The election of Goldwater or the victory of fascism would heavily damage U. S. business interests in every section of the globe.

Strength Of Civil Rights Movement

Third, the people of the United States still have fresh in their minds the horrors of Hitler and the hysteria of McCarthyism. The Negro people and the Civil Rights movement are showing a very high degree of political consciousness. They show the lessons learned in struggle. The action of the NAACP convention in condemning Goldwater and the marches in San Francisco are indicative of the level of their participation in this political upsurge.

It also now appears that labor will be united, at least along parallel lines, in this campaign. There is a new alertness in the ranks of labor about this challenge to their specific self-interests. These developments add up to a possibility of a speedy crystallization of the needed Labor-Negro alliance. The Oklahoma experience, where such an alliance defeated the union-busting "right-to-work" law provides many lessons.

Initiative Needed

There is not only the polarization of reaction. There is also a trend of the democratic and progressive currents towards coalition. This trend is a reflex to the reactionary coalition which jeopardizes the social gains of various elements among the people. This tends to merge the various popular currents into a massive movement against reaction.

If all of these positive factors are present—what then is missing to make them into a living movement? What is it that must be added to complete the picture?

What is needed is initiative. To meet this challenge of reaction, what is needed is 10,000 people's initiatives to initiate 100,000 movements, actions, conferences, meetings, committees, petitions, marches. What is needed are initiators, mobilizers and organizers. What is needed are a hundred thousand committees to defeat the ultra-Right.

Role Of The Left

And this brings us up to the usual knotty question. Where does the Left fit into this picture? What should the Americans who are against capitalism and for socialism do? For some sections of the Left this remains the main source for disunity. This same question comes up again and again.

Briefly, it can be summed up as follows: Should the Left start from the premise that there are no differences between the candidates or the two old parties, and therefore ignore and boycott all that goes on within and around these parties, and conclude that it must only have its own candidates? This has been and remains the essence of the policy of some groups on the Left. Each election year they promise something better for the next election.

We think such a policy is self-defeating. It isolates the Left from the masses who are moving into the electoral arena. We are for independent political action. But we do not believe it possible to conduct such activities in isolation or in a political vacuum. We are for independent political action that is independent of the bourgeois political machines, but we are not for independence from the voters and masses around those machines.

We are for independence from capitalist class policies, but we are not for independence from the broad issues of reforms that the masses see in their own self-interests. We can finally declare for complete independent political action only when the masses through their experiences are ready to do so. We can contribute to their experience and stimulate independence only by being with them in the current, decisive political struggles.

When the issues are as sharply drawn as they are in the 1964 elections, it is a political crime for anyone on the Left to advocate abstention or boycott.

The Left must play an indispensable part as initiators in this election. The Left must help turn the currents and the mass moods into mass movements and mass struggles against the ultra-Right. The Left cannot make this indispensable contribution of being the initiative force if it remains isolated.

Why is it so difficult for some on the Left to understand this tactic? We do not hesitate to take part in the Civil Rights struggle on its own reformist level. We do not say we are going to set up our own "civil rights through socialism" movement. We do not hesitate to take part in the trade union movement on its own reformist level. We do not say we are going to set up our own "trade unions, shorter hours, high wages—through socialism" movement. Why is it that we do not see any contradiction between our work in these mass movements and our advocacy for socialism?

Work Among Broad Masses

Why should we not do likewise in the field of elections? It is only another arena of struggle. The same people, the same workers, are involved. And these are the same workers and the same people who will be in any serious struggles toward socialism. Why is it that we should take note of the level of struggle in the Civil Rights movement and the trade unions, but refuse to do so in the field of electoral struggles? With the present confrontation, with the ultra-Right—fascist forces in control of the Republican Party, in view of Goldwater's policies of war and reaction—with his votes against civil rights, against labor and the poor—how in the name of common sense, of practical politics, or in the name of your abstract concepts of good and bad—can you continue ostrich-like policies flowing from the outdated concepts that there are no differences between the two parties? How can you continue to ignore the ultra-Right threat?

No one is suggesting that the Left should exclusively work in the broad mass democratic movement. What we are arguing for is that it should be one of the responsibilities that it undertakes. But we say more— we are convinced that unless the Left does undertake this mass task, then its work as a Left in general will become ineffective because it becomes isolated.

We are not suggesting that the Left become an electoral arm of the Democratic Party. We are for the Left to become the initiators of the broad movements against the ultra-Right and expose specific sections of their program on civil rights, against ending poverty, etc.

If the Left can unite its ranks and become the initiators of the broad people's electoral movements against the ultra-Right, a number of things will happen: 1. The enemy of all progress will receive a crushing blow. 2. A broad people's democratic movement will become a permanent factor in the political life of the country.

New Opportunities For Democratic Advance

It is a law of political development that masses will only learn through the process of their experience in struggle. They can move much faster; they can avoid many unnecessary deadends if we of the Left are with them.

As there is a logic in the direction an ultra-Right current travels, there is also a sense of its own logic that a progressive movement takes. Therefore, it is not clear there is no other path through which the Left can fight for its goals except as a part of the broad people's struggles? These movements are not ready to move on the advanced terms set by the Left. They will only step by step.

The struggle for socialism is a logical continuation of the struggle for democracy, for peace, for economic security. The very same people who now fight for reforms, who express their electoral voice through the two parties, are the people who because of their experiences will say, "Let's go one step further— a step to socialism." What sense would it make for us to separate ourselves from these people?

Without this kind of an approach the Left becomes boxed in. It is isolated and so its own electoral efforts remain at a minimum level. It is not a factor in the political life of the country. Only a Left that can initiate and give leadership to a broad political spectrum can be a meaningful political force.

Finally, there are some on the Left who seemingly give a revolutionary stiff upper lip. They firmly say their position is based on the concept of no differences in the two old parties.

Bufs, Trinity Clash Saturday

Tackling two Tiger packs in two weeks equals four quarters to do better minus one bitter and thorough 41-0 mauling.

West Texas State University opens the gates of Buffalo Bowl to tackle Trinity University's Tigers Saturday at 7:30 p.m.

The Buffaloes met Memphis State University's Tigers last Saturday. When the bloody battle ended Memphis State held the 41-0 shutout.

Last Saturday was a bad night out for the Buffaloes. And West Texas State doesn't plan to play Tiger bait again.

Trinity University, coached by W. C. McElhannon, holds a 7-6 series record edge over WTSU and is still smarting from last seasons 24-2 Buffalo trampling.

"Trinity could very easily have a 3-3 record right now," said WT tackle coach Clarence "Dirk" Dierking. Dierking scouted the Trinity-Arkansas State game at Jonesboro last weekend.

Trinity lost to University of Houston 34-7, fell to Texas A & I 32-21. "They have played everybody this season real closely except Texas A & I," said Dierking.

The Tigers lost to Lamar Tech 14-7 in the last few seconds of the game, then were defeated by New Mexico State 14-6.

"Trinity played well against Arkansas State," said Dierking, "but they had three punts blocked. Trinity totaled 281 yards total offense during the game."

Arkansas State is undefeated at this time.

"They like to throw the football. Trinity has two very capable quarterbacks who can throw well. Against Arkansas State, Les Obie, junior, hit 15 of 19 passes for 159 yards. Donnie Witwiski hit 3 of 9 for 41 yards. That totaled 200 yards in the air for Trinity."

The Tigers have averaged 265 yards on offense per game this season.

Trinity University functions from a pro-set with split back and end, or will use regular "T" alignment with one end split.

Outstanding performer in the Trinity lineup is senior halfback and co-captain Obert Logan, "one of the finest backs we will play against all year", who holds an 8.9 rushing average for five games.

"They have an exceptional receiver in Jackie Hall, halfback, 6', 175-pounder," said Dierking.

"He is a fine offensive back, excellent receiver. He caught 11 passes for 168 yards during the first five games."

"Another good receiver is John Jones, split end, who caught 7 passes for 97 yards against Arkansas State."

Tough inside runner is fullback Earl Eason. "Eason had a good day against us last year as a freshman."

Outstanding defensive men include Homer Simmons, defensive guard, transfer from Hardin - Simmons University. Simmons is one of their largest linemen, weighs 235 pounds.

Others include Mike Tuck, guard and freshman, and Charles Meisner, who does a fine job as inside linebacker.

Overall line weight average for Trinity is 198 and backfield average is 172.

It looks like another one of those seasons for West Texas State injuries.

End Woody Gilliland, injured last weekend in the Memphis State game, suffered torn ligaments in his knee and is out of action indefinitely.

Defensive safety Ronnie Manikin, rumored to be nearly healed, will probably be out at least two more weeks with a shoulder injury.

Center Charlie Daves, suffering a knee injury in the Texas Western game Oct. 3rd, suited out last Saturday night although he did not play during the game. Daves reinjured the knee early this week in drills and is scheduled to be out for another indefinite period.

Other Buff injuries have been minor, mostly cuts and bruises suffered in the Memphis State clash.

End Doug Kriewald moved to the second team slot this week and Ted Wheeler, sophomore end, moved into the starting lineup to replace Gilliland at right end.

Probable starters for the Buffs this weekend include ends, Butch Walterscheid and Ted Wheeler; tackles George Allen and Wilton Manley; guards David Sims and Vernon Kosub; center Doc Rowell; quarterback Bill Bundy; halfbacks Dennis Flanagan and Earl West and fullback Russell Mundy.

Congressman Walter Rogers, left, is shown here riding in the West Texas State University homecoming parade Saturday. With him is Dr. J. A. Hill, president emeritus of WT.

Musgrave Led PTA Program

Ray Musgrave, Canyon High School counselor, assisted by six students, presented a skit to those attending the PTA meeting last Thursday evening.

Assisting Musgrave with the skit, which demonstrated the "proper" way to get a child to school in teachable style, were Joe Kerbel, Jody Sheets, Sally Nester, Kay Nester, Doe Nan Musgrave, and Vicki Daniel.

Mrs. A. B. Holt, Mrs. C. B. Erwin and Mrs. Richmond Hales presented a program on school curriculum, followed by a short demonstration of new math by math teachers Mrs. Bill Knighton and Herman Demus.

Devotional was given by Ocie Chism and music was provided by Gene Murray, who presented a group of junior high girls who sang.

Plans for a chuckwagon supper, coinciding with Homecoming at Canyon High School were finalized.

The next PTA meeting will be Nov. 19 at 7:30 p.m. in Rex Reeves Elementary School.

Mrs. Jack Haley will give the devotional and music will be provided by the Merry Mothers.

Stated program is "Educational Methods of Yesteryear and Present".

Mrs. Madge Culberson will speak on the Good Ol' Days, followed by "Present Day opportunities", by Dr. Burl Brim.

ties. But when you scratch the surface of this dogmatic veneer, it becomes clear that their position is not based on this dogmatic principle -- but rather they feel they can continue to sound revolutionary because they believe the people are going to defeat reaction. This is the worst type of self-deception, the worst kind of opportunism. It is political scavengerism.

Where Do Communists Fit In?

Our analysis convinces us that the greatest danger comes from the rise of the ultra-Right-Goldwater alliance.

However, we have very serious differences with the Johnson Administration. We have been critical and sharply condemn the Administration policy of imperialist aggression in South East Asia. We have always sharply condemned the policy of aggression against the Republic of Cuba. The Administration program against poverty is completely inadequate. As soon as the economic boom hits a snag, this will become very obvious.

Because of the undemocratic laws, both federal and state, and because of the harassment of people who would have to sign our electoral petitions, we are still unable to run candidates for President and Vice-President. These are difficulties not of our making.

However, we are not going to permit these problems to paralyze us. We are going to do all we can to build the broad people's movement against the ultra-Right. Our Party will join with all democratic forces to defeat the ultra-Right Goldwater coalition, while at the same time we will not endorse the presidential candidate of the Democratic Party.

We are going to join in the fight for any candidate who stands with the people on the issues of this confrontation. Wherever possible we are going to run local Communist candidates.

Part Of Democratic America

The campaign of Comrade Bill Taylor for Supervisor in Los Angeles County is a clear demonstration of the possibilities for such candidates. This increased the influence of our Party and added a necessary feature to the image of our Party.

We are going to make our contribution in clarifying of issues, of deepening the understanding of the basic issues.

We are Communists, and we are also a part of the political Left. So we will work to unite the Left and with it become a part of the force of initiators.

We are Communists, and we are also a part of the progressive trend.

We are Communists, and we are fighters for the broad issues of democracy and peace, part of democratic America. And so we are going to work with all of the forces who make up the legions of the broad people's democratic movement against the ultra-Right fascist conspiracy.

Election Topic For SUB Panel

"Election 1964" is the topic of a panel discussion slated today, Thursday, at 6:30 p.m. in the Student Union Building Ballroom.

New Cub Scouting Pack Organizes

Boys old enough to want to learn... young enough to need to belong.

Those are the boys who recently joined together in Canyon's newly-organized Cub Scout Pack 66.

Cub Master for Pack 66, Llano Estacado Council of Randall District, is Lee Roy Moreland.

At the present, Canyon Cub Scouts have three dens, eight boys to each den, and room for approximately 12 more boys.

The Cubs of Pack 66 recently all earned their first scouting badge, the Bobcat Award. The Bobcat Award is a pin which must be worn upside-down until the scout does a good deed.

Other awards are cloth badges. Cub scouts may wear all badges they earn sewn on their uniforms. However, the cub scout may carry only one badge over into boy scouting, the Webelos badge.

Cub scouts began to learn about scouting in the Wolf book for the eight year olds.

Nine year olds study in the Bear book, ten year olds the Lion book and when a boy is 10 1/2, he becomes a member of the Webelos.

Earning the various badges is done separately by each boy at his own rate of speed. After the cub is 12, he works on arrow points. First arrow point is gold and the remainder are silver.

Canyon Cub scouts meet monthly in a pack meeting. Each week the cubs have den meetings in each of the three dens.

Since cub scouting is a cooperative thing involving not only participation by the boy, but also from parents, mothers may join in activities by becoming den mothers.

Pack 66 Den number one is guided by den mother Mrs. Lee Roy Moreland.

Cubs in den one include Rex Dee McPherson, Chris Moreland, David Wayne McCoy, Bradley Alan Garner, Greg Lehnick, Dan McGlasson, David Kevin Fite and Martin Edward Widick.

Den mother of Den number two is Mrs. Chuck Allen. Her cub scouts include Jeffrey Paul Carlile, Thomas Charles Allen, Andrew Meroney, Steven H. Scoggins and Larry Floyd.

Mrs. Roy Forehand is den mother of Den number three and her assistant is Mrs. Deene Donnell. Den dad is Odell LaGrone. Cubs are Charles Gray, Lonnie Meador, Alan Donnell, Gary LaGrone and Kelly Forehand.

Each den mother is also assisted by a boy scout called a Den Chief. Andy Moreland is den chief for den one, Pat Jarrett for den two and Greg Donnell for den three.

During the weekly den meetings, the cub scouts work on various crafts, do skill games and work on projects. The cubs are also taking tours in the community monthly, to help them become familiar with such places as the post office, court house, fire department and others.

"Each year we try to select a service project for the Cub scouts," said Mrs. Moreland. "They learn to help others."

Boys must learn the Cub Scout Promise. "I, (name), Promise to do my best to do my duty to God and my country, to be square, and to obey the law of the pack."

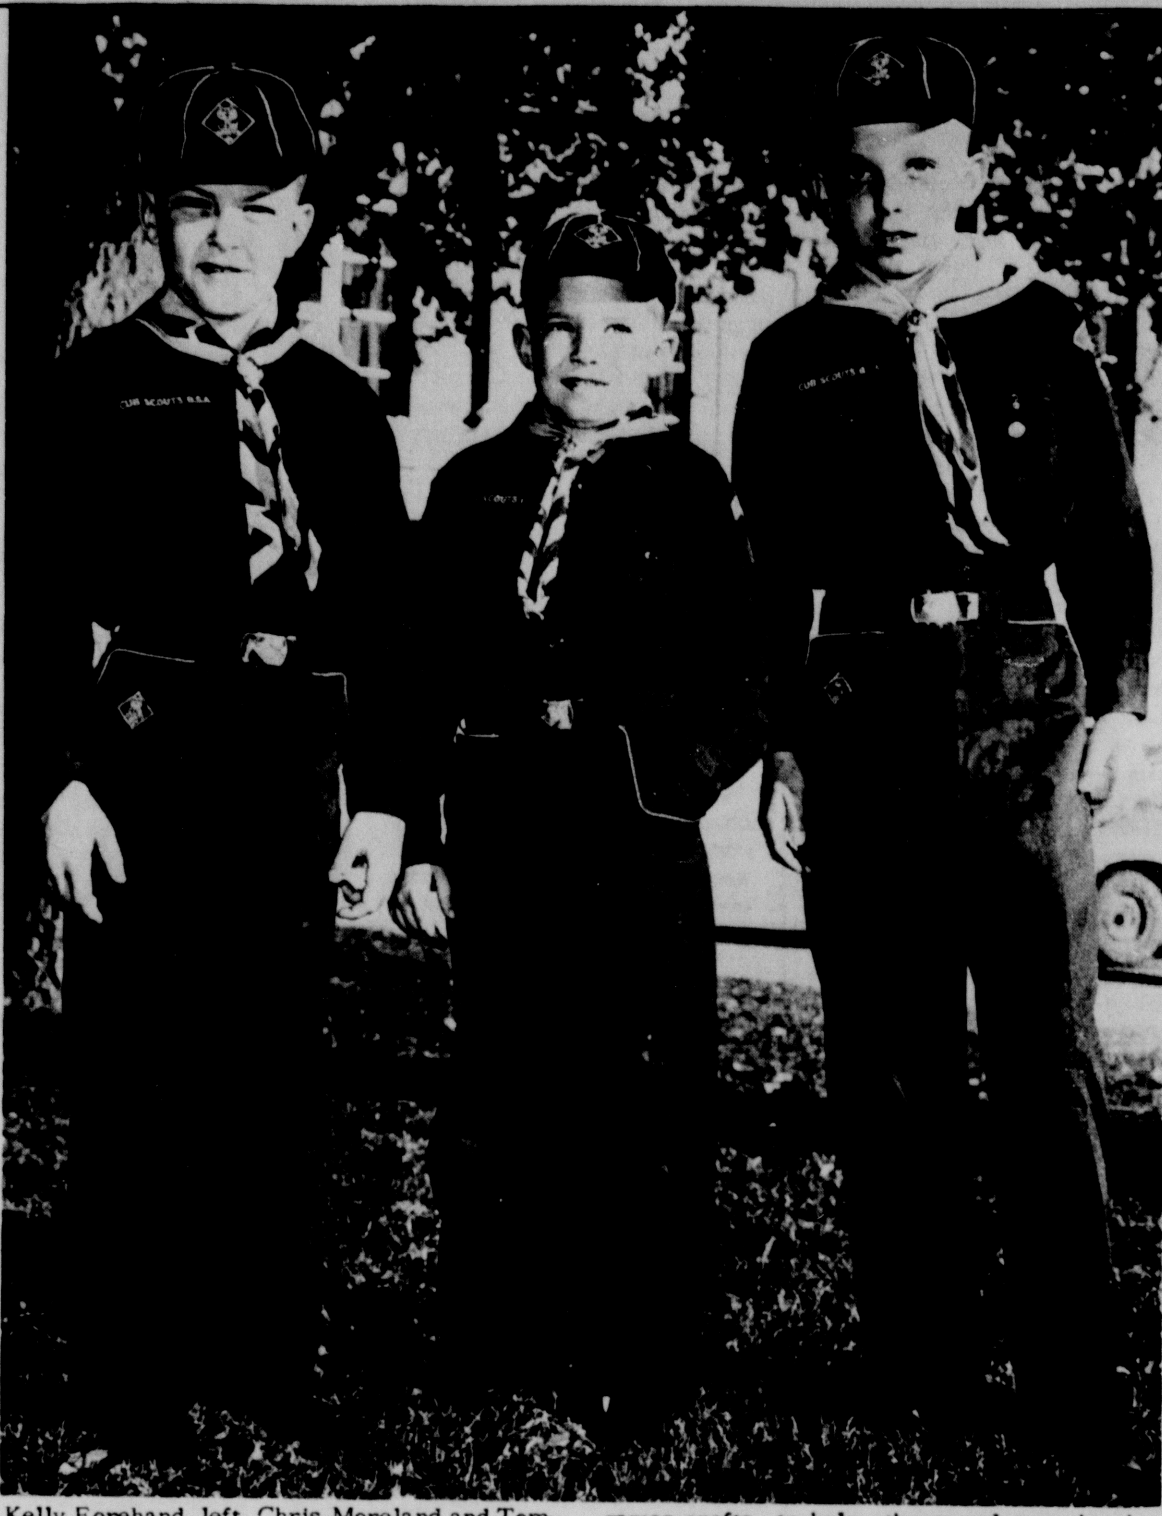

Cub scouts learn the cub scout code, cub scout sign, the handshake, salute and living circle.

From here they follow the Wolf trail to earning the Wolf badge.

This year is the 50th anniversary for Cub Scouting and the first year for Canyon cub scouting.

"Boys this age need to belong to a group or a gang and cub scouting fills this need," said Cub Master Moreland. "Cub scouting lays the foundation for boy scouts."

With the Wolf, Bear, Lion and Webelos badges as their immediate goals, the Canyon cub scouts of pack 66 have banded together as a working unit and will one day wear the uniforms of the Boy Scouts of America.

Kelly Forehand, left, Chris Moreland and Tommy Allen are members of the newly-organized Cub Scout Pack 66 of Canyon. Three dens are included here under the Llano Estacado Council of Randall District and Cub Master is Lee Roy Moreland. Cub scouts learn to do skill Canyon was one of four such outdoor rallies Mike Goldwater held during an afternoon of campaigning for his father, the U. S. Senator from Arizona. Goldwater, brought to Canyon in the leading car of a six-car caravan, spoke to some 150 gatherers about his father's aspirations and ideals.

"My father is aiming his campaign at the intelligence of people, not their stomachs, fears and emotions," he exclaimed.

Speaking from a hayrack decorated in red, white and blue paper, Goldwater, 24, told the Canyon listeners to find out how each candidate stands on all the issues.

"Go to the Democratic headquarters and find out what President Johnson stands for. Then go to the Republican headquarters and find out what my father stands for. You owe it to yourself, your country, your children and their future to find out what each man stands for," he urged.

Mike, a slightly built young man, used a microphone during part of his speech, but put it aside when it began to interfere with his talk.

He did not use a microphone at his stopovers in Amarillo or Tulsa, where the crowd was estimated at 300 persons.

He showed humor in his talk and received a warm round of laughter when he spoke directly to one child in his audience.

Goldwater was commenting about the national debt owed by every newborn infant in the United States, when a child in the front row began to whimper. "I'd cry too son," Mike said as he smiled to the youngster.

The crowd received the show of humor with laughter and applause.

Goldwater continued his rally speech noting that his father had become interested in politics 12 years ago.

"We used to go hunting and fishing, but when Dad got into politics we didn't take as many trips.

"One day I asked him why he was getting into politics, and he said, 'Someone has to do it.'" Goldwater emphasized.

Mike said his father had told the Goldwater children to cherish the United States, the freedoms in this country and the ideals which the country was built on.

"Dad used to talk about what a great country this is. He'd tell us about the founders, explain our freedoms, speak of the ever-presence of God.

"But I find it hard to respect a philosophy of government which acts with indecision," he continued as he cited the recent Red Chinese A-bomb test as evidence of danger to the U. S.

Goldwater commented again and again during his speeches about the "gray cloud of scandal over the White House", referring to the Walter Jenkins and the Bobby Baker controversies.

"The recent Walter Jenkins case adds a log to the fire which already includes Bobby Baker and Billie Sol Estes. People are seeing that cloud over the White House grow," Goldwater pushed on.

The rally for Goldwater was headed by Rhett Plank, chairman of the Young Texans for Goldwater in this area. Plank introduced Bob Price, GOP congressional candidate, who in turn introduced the campaigning Goldwater.

When asked how the Goldwater campaign was shaping up, Mike noted that it was going as planned.

"Of course my father's campaign is growing and gaining strength. After all, it is designed to reach its peak on Nov. 3," he noted with a smile.

Goldwater arrived in Amarillo Friday about 2:15 p.m. and was greeted by Young Republicans and members of the Amarillo Republican Party.

He was guest at a tea in Amarillo honoring Price of Pampa, and was in the lead car during a caravan ride to Canyon and then on to Tulsa and Plainview.

Friday night, Goldwater spoke at a campaign rally at Lubbock's Texas Tech. He joined his brother, Barry Goldwater, Jr., in Dallas Saturday, and the two men traveled to Austin where they met Congressman William E. Miller's two daughters for a rally.

Miller is GOP vice-presidential nominee.

700 Participate At Parish Dinner

Approximately 700 persons were served at the St. Ann's parish dinner held Sunday at the Rex Reeves Elementary School.

Ernest Frank of Panhandle was awarded a color television during the morning and afternoon mealtime, and Captain James M. Rapko of Canyon received a Shetland pony.

"We were well satisfied with the crowd," Werner Henscheid said about the dinner.

Man Dies In Truck Accident On E-Way

An Amarillo man was killed Sunday morning in a truck accident 2 1/2 miles north of Canyon on the E-Way.

Johnny Harriman, father of two, died when the truck he was driving veered off the highway, uprooted a tree and burst in flames.

Canyon volunteer firemen were called to the scene to fight the blaze at 6:10 a.m. Sunday.

Highway patrolman Bill Clifton, investigating officer, said apparently the man fell asleep while driving the truck north on the highway.

The left side of the empty cattle trailer hit a tree and tore it out of the ground. The tree landed in the bed of the trailer.

The truck cab jackknifed and landed partially under the trailer.

Clifton said apparently the seat gas tank and the saddle tanks erupted and gas leaked from the tanks. The fire was probably caused when the electrical wiring shorted near the gasoline, Clifton surmised.

Funeral services were conducted in Amarillo Wednesday.

Mr. Harriman was born in Huntsville, Arkansas and was employed with Gibbs Trucking Company.

Survivors include his wife, Margaret; a son and daughter, and his grandparents.

Highway patrolmen investigated two other accidents during Saturday evening in Randall County.

The first occurred Saturday around 6:30 p.m. when three cars received minor damage died when the truck veered off the four-lane highway, struck a tree, and burst into flames. Canyon volunteer firemen fought the blaze in the early morning hours Sunday.

Cows Tested, Ranked High

Four Holstein cows owned by Louis G. Henders of Canyon ranked high in production tests conducted recently by the Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

Tests were given to Palo Duro Golden R. Girl, a two-year-old registered Holstein; Caljune Seven Bobby Last, a four-year-old; Palo Duro Princess Empress, a seven-year-old; and Palo Duro Golden Pica, a two-year-old.

Palo Duro Golden produced 17,248 pounds of milk, 677 pounds of butterfat and 1,654 pounds of solids-not-fat in 363 days. Caljune Seven produced 19,496 pounds of milk, 784 pounds of butterfat and 1,912 pounds of solids-not-fat in 326 days.

Palo Duro Princess had 19,936 pounds of milk, 724 pounds of butterfat and 1,804 pounds of solids-not-fat in 269 days. Palo Duro Golden had 17,795 pounds of milk, 674 pounds of butterfat and 1,666 pounds of solids-not-fat in 365 days.

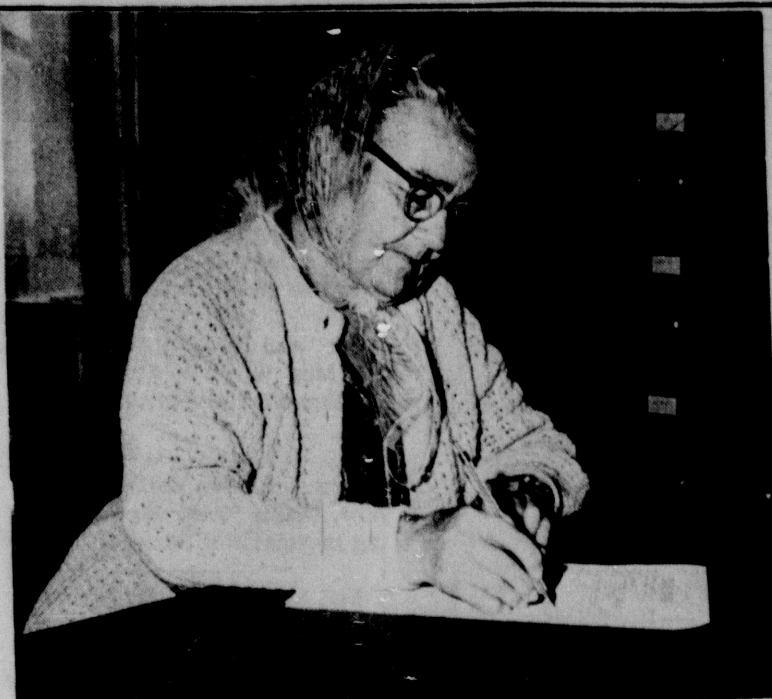

According to the national Holstein organization, these production figures compare to an annual output of 7,500 pounds of milk and 275 pounds of butterfat by the average United States dairy cow. Solids-not-fat testing is too new for computing a national average figure, the association commented.

Texas A&M University supervised the weighing and testing of the Holstein records as part of the breed's nation-wide herd testing program.

LaGrone ambulance, treated and released.

According to Clifton, a horse owned by L. W. Moulton was killed when a car struck the animal late Saturday night in another accident.

Thomas McDonald was driver of the car which struck the horse about 10 p.m. The vehicle skidded sideways and struck a fence before coming to a stop. Damage to the vehicle was estimated at $500.

Mrs. L. E. Thomas is shown as she casts her ballot in absentee voting in the Randall County Clerk's office. Mrs. Thomas, who lives on the Palo Duro Highway, was the first person to vote absentee for the general election and the Randall County airport bond election. General election will be Nov. 3. Absentee balloting ends at 5 p.m. Oct. 30.

Myers, Burrus Back From Trip

"We just missed Hilda", was the comment of Mrs. T. J. (Curley) Myers upon their return with the H. W. Burruses from a 5000 mile jaunt through the South and East.

The two families visited New Orleans, and spent several days sightseeing there, after being told that Hilda was not expected to strike the Louisiana coast.

After leaving New Orleans, the four journeyed to Key West and Key Biscayne, Florida, and stopped for four days in Miami Beach, where they attended the dog races.

"The weather was fine during the whole trip, except for one day", reported Mrs. Myers. "That was the day we tried to visit Cape Kennedy."

According to Mrs. Myers, it began raining very hard, and the two couples decided to return to the main highway, since portions of the coastal highway had been washed out by hurricane Donna.

The families continued on through the Carolinas and Tennessee, stopping in Nashville. While they were in that city, they saw the "Grand Ole Opry".

The two couples returned through Arkansas, arriving in Canyon last Friday.

Mrs. Myers stated that they saw little building damage from hurricane Donna. "But, we were right ahead of Hilda, for she hit where we had just been. A tornado destroyed a small town we had been through."

Despite hurricane difficulties, the four had an interesting 16 day trip, "just sightseeing".

Emma Kay Holland, Groom senior, is escorted by Randy Chennault during halftime at the West Texas State University-Memphis State University football game last Saturday night. Emma Kay was crowned Homecoming Queen at the assembly in the WT Field House Thursday morning, reigned over the activities and took part in the Saturday afternoon parade.

Weekend Climaxed By WT Homecoming

A queen was crowned, the parade took place and good attendance was reported for all activities; including the barbecue.

So ended long hours of work for the West Texas State University Homecoming which took place last weekend.

"As far as we know, we had a real good Homecoming," stated Dr. Jack Walker, speech professor, head of the Homecoming Committee.

"We had no problems other than those we expected, the weather was good, we had fine response from the townspeople. The only thing that went wrong was the football game, but there was nothing we could do about that," said Walker.

"We are particularly indebted to those merchants who sponsored Homecoming parade floats," emphasized Walker.

Twelve float entries were sponsored by Canyon merchants. Sponsors include Cooper's Market, Taylor and Sons Grocery, Bellah's Super Market, Canyon Drug, Kiwanis Club, Sternberg Lumber Company, First National Bank, Thompson's Hardware, Haley's Printing, Canyon Rotary, Lions Club and Warren's.

Emma Kay Holland, Groom senior and elementary education major, was elected Homecoming Queen. Her attendants included Sharon Corica, Lee Ruth Wiggins, Ina Messenger and Karen Brewster.

Approximately 23,080 persons attended the barbecue following Saturday's parade. Some 1,000 students were in attendance at the Homecoming dance, following the football game.

Attendance at the West Texas State-Memphis State University football game was estimated at 14,426.

"The various reunions on campus were also well-attended during the day," Walker noted.

Three judges chose top three dormitory decorations and three float entries.

McCaslin Hall, freshmen women's dorm, won first place in dormitory decorations, Brown Hall second and newly-opened Shirley Hall third.

First place float was Delta Zeta, second place Phi Delta Theta and third Industrial Arts.

Activities began last Thursday with a Homecoming assembly staged in the Field House, taped by KGNC-television and featuring KGNC news department head Bob Izzard as MC.

Bonfire and pep rally took place following Friday night's dance. Rodeo activities were also underway Thursday and Friday nights.

Other activities included the annual Homecoming Ball for ex-students, held Friday night at Amarillo County Club and the Phoenix Club Dinner Friday evening.

Theme for Homecoming this year was "A Chance to Visit" and parade theme was "Texas Myths and Legends".

Members of the Homecoming Committee will meet at 3 p.m. today, Thursday, in the Fine Arts Building to discuss this year's activities and begin plans for next year's Homecoming, according to Walker.

Winning float at the 1964 West Texas State University Homecoming Parade Saturday afternoon was decorated by members of the Delta Zeta social sorority. The theme carried out in the float was "We Grow Em Big In Texas" and showed a Texas-size jackrabbit that mechanically moved its head from side to side. Riding on the float in the parade were Shirley Anderle, president of the sorority, Ann Adair of Canyon, on the rabbit, and Carol Balfour of Channing.

Professors Attend Theatre Conference

Dr. Crannell Tolliver and William A. Moore will take part in the Southwest Theatre Conference Oct. 29-31 in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

Tolliver, speech department head, and Moore, speech instructor at West Texas State University, will take part in activities at University of Arkansas. Represented in the conference are five states, Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico.

Tolliver will preside over the general session at 9 a.m. Saturday morning. Presented will be a program on Interpreter's Theatre.

"There will be a demonstration during the Interpreter's Theatre program by students from Southwest Missouri State College," said Tolliver. "Afterwards we will have a panel to discuss this type of theatre work."

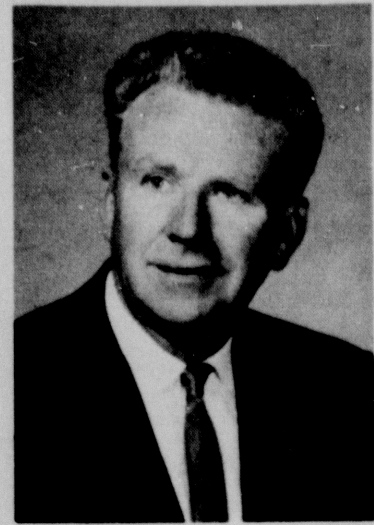

Moore will serve as a member of the nominating committee. New playwrights from all over the country will join in a symposium debate for the audience of SWTC producers.

The symposium, titled "Playwrights Meet Producers," will meet the problem of communication between the writing of a play and eventual production.

Other panels to be included during the three day session are "Boards of Directors: Hazard or Help in Community Theatres", "Collegiate Theatre Problems", "Theatre Promotion", "Stage Design", and "Children's Theatre".

Special feature will be the Night-owl sessions, informal discussions of theatre problems. Hostess-chairman will be Nita Krupp of Amarillo Little

CHS Student Conducts Test

A special milo test project, directed by George Cox, ended last week with the harvesting of nine acres of grain.

Cox, a Canyon High School senior and member of the Future Farmers of America, began the project last May when he planted the nine acres with TE66 seed from Taylor-Evans Farm Store.

He planted the seed in double and single rows to measure which would produce the highest yield.

He planted 28 rows in double rows and 16 rows in single rows. He also used commercial fertilizer on half the crop and natural fertilizer on the second half.

"We found that the double row yielded more than the single rows," Cox said this week. The nine acres yielded 5,666 pounds of milo per acre, according to Cox.

The project was begun by Cox as an FFA project for the year.
